Right: Mr. Armstrong greets the last four guests to Prom "three minutes late, but we'll let you in anyway!" Cathy and Vickie DiMercurio, along with dates, Dave DeGrace (behind Mr. Armstrong) and Doug Harvey, were very grateful.

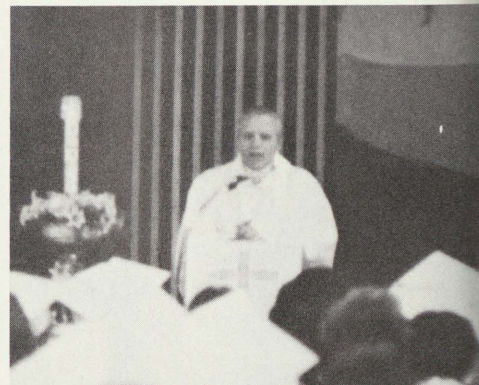

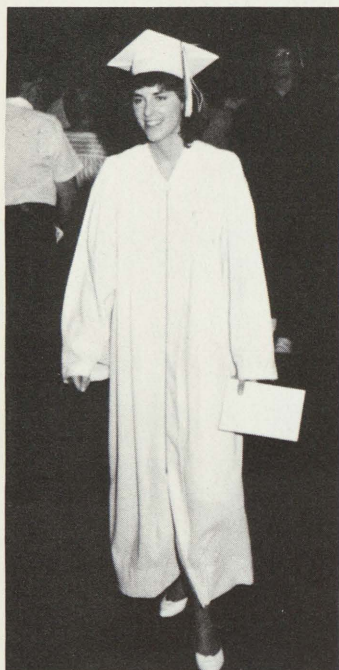

A Night to Remember

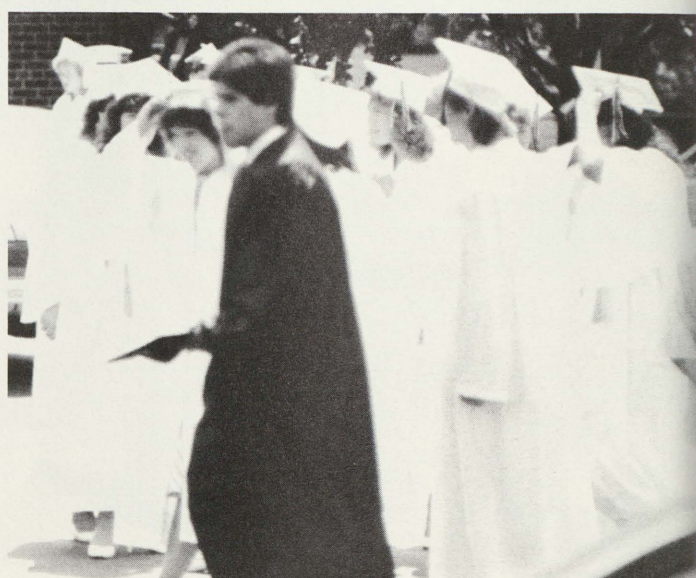

Top: As students gathered at the dance this year, they couldn't help but notice the decorations. Special thanks to the juniors on Prom Committee for turning an ordinary cafeteria into a beautiful dance floor! Left: Nikki Boyd, Lisa Schwartzly, and Tony Carson take time out from dancing to refresh themselves at the punch bowl. Above: This fine looking bunch of junior guys are just a sample of the many well dressed couples that attended Prom '87. Take a good look they only dress like this once a year!

Baccalaureate
